10.12 Systemic Lupus Erythematosus

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • "My joints ache and I am always tired." Objective • Joints painful and swollen • Butterfly rash on the face • ANA positive	ACTUAL Fatigue related to disease activity as evidenced by persistent tiredness and reduced activity.	Within 2 weeks, says she has more energy.	• Plan periods of rest and activity. • Give anti-inflammatory and immunosuppressive drugs as prescribed. • Encourage gentle, regular exercise.	More energy: goal met.
Subjective • "I hate the rash on my face." Objective • Butterfly rash on the face • Does not want to go out	ACTUAL Disturbed body image related to facial rash as evidenced by distress and avoiding social contact.	Shows acceptance and uses protective measures.	• Teach sun protection: sunscreen, a hat, staying out of the midday sun. • Talk about cosmetic camouflage. • Let her talk about how she feels.	Accepting: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • On steroids and immunosuppressants	RISK Risk for infection as evidenced by risk factors: immunosuppressive therapy.	No infection.	• Tell her to report a fever early. • Follow blood counts. • Make sure her vaccinations are done as advised.	No infection: goal met.