10.15 Radiotherapy

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • "The skin in the treatment area is red and itchy." Objective • Treatment field red, with dry peeling skin	ACTUAL Impaired skin integrity related to radiation effects as evidenced by erythema and peeling in the treatment field.	Skin heals with no infection.	• Teach him to wash with lukewarm water and pat the skin dry. • No perfume, deodorant or tight clothes on the area. • Keep the area out of the sun. • Use only the creams that are prescribed.	Skin healing: goal met.
Subjective • "I feel tired all the time." Objective • Getting more tired as the course goes on Sleeps in the afternoon	ACTUAL Fatigue related to radiotherapy as evidenced by increasing tiredness.	Uses ways of managing the fatigue.	• Teach him to pace his activities and plan rests. • Encourage light exercise. • Make sure he eats well.	Managing the fatigue: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Having radiation to the head and neck	RISK Risk for impaired oral mucous membrane integrity as evidenced by risk factors: radiation to the oral cavity.	Lining of the mouth stays intact.	• Arrange a dental check before treatment starts. • Teach mouth care after meals. • He should avoid smoking, alcohol and spicy food.	Mucosa intact: goal met.