10.3 Thalassemia in Adults

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • "I need blood every month and feel tired before it." Objective • Hb 7.5 g/dL before the transfusion • Pale	ACTUAL Fatigue related to chronic anemia as evidenced by tiredness before transfusion.	Says she has more energy after the transfusion.	• Give the transfusion as prescribed, with all safety checks. • Watch for transfusion reactions. • Plan rest periods.	More energy: goal met.
Subjective • "I miss the iron chelation sometimes." Objective • Ferritin high • Records show missed doses	ACTUAL Ineffective health self-management related to burden of daily chelation therapy as evidenced by missed doses and high ferritin.	Takes her chelation as prescribed.	• Explain iron overload and what it does to the heart and liver. • Work out a schedule that fits her life. • Follow ferritin.	Taking it more regularly: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Has had many transfusions • Spleen removed	RISK Risk for infection as evidenced by risk factors: splenectomy and repeated transfusions.	No serious infection.	• Make sure her vaccinations are done. • Teach her to report fever urgently. • Give the prophylactic antibiotic if ordered.	No infection: goal met.