13.3 Endometriosis

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • "My periods are extremely painful." • Gives the pain 8/10 during her period Objective • Pelvis tender • Pain gets in the way of work	ACTUAL Chronic pain related to endometrial tissue outside the uterus as evidenced by severe cyclical pelvic pain.	Pain at a level that lets her manage her daily activities.	• Give NSAIDs and hormonal therapy as prescribed. • Teach heat application and relaxation. • Encourage her to keep a pain diary.	Pain manageable: goal met.
Subjective • "Will I be able to have children?" Objective • Married 3 years, not yet pregnant • Gets tearful talking about fertility	ACTUAL Anxiety related to concern about fertility as evidenced by questions and worry.	Says she understands her treatment and her fertility options.	• Give her accurate information. • Refer to a fertility specialist as appropriate.	Informed: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • On hormonal therapy	RISK Risk for ineffective health self-management as evidenced by risk factors: long-term hormonal therapy with side effects.	Keeps up her treatment as prescribed.	• Explain the side effects and how to manage them. • Book follow-up.	Keeps to treatment: goal met.