17.15 Thalassemia Major in Children

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • Mother says • "She gets tired and pale before her transfusion." Objective • Hb 7 g/dL • Pale • Spleen enlarged	ACTUAL Activity intolerance related to chronic anemia as evidenced by fatigue and low Hb.	Keeps up her usual activity after the transfusion.	• Give the transfusion as prescribed, with all safety checks. • Watch for reactions. • Plan rest.	Activity kept up: goal met.
Subjective • Mother says • "The chelation pump is hard to use every night." Objective • Ferritin high • Has missed doses	ACTUAL Ineffective health self-management related to burden of chelation therapy as evidenced by missed doses and high ferritin.	Chelation given regularly.	• Talk to the team about oral chelation. • Teach the family and support them.	Taking it more regularly: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Spleen removed • Has had many transfusions	RISK Risk for infection as evidenced by risk factors: splenectomy and repeated transfusions.	No serious infection.	• Make sure her vaccinations are done. • Tell the parents to report fever urgently.	No infection: goal met.