17.24 Down Syndrome

| Assessment | Nursing Diagnosis | Plan / Expected Outcome | Nursing Interventions | Evaluation |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Subjective• Mother says• "The baby is floppy and feeds slowly."Objective• Low muscle tone• Sucks weakly | ACTUALIneffective infant feeding dynamics related to hypotonia as evidenced by weak suck and slow feeding. | Takes enough and gains weight. | • Support the jaw and chin during feeds.• Small feeds, often.• Weigh regularly. | Gaining weight: goal met. |
| Subjective• Mother asks• "What will his future be?"Objective• Parents upset• Lots of questions | ACTUALDeficient knowledge (parent) related to the child's condition and needs as evidenced by questions. | Parents can describe the follow-up he will need. | • Explain the screening for heart, thyroid, hearing and vision.• Refer to early intervention services.• Put them in touch with support groups. | Describe the plan: goal met. |
| Subjective• No specific complaintObjective• Low muscle tone• Catches colds often | RISKRisk for infection as evidenced by risk factors: frequent respiratory infections. | No serious infection. | • Make sure his immunisations are done.• Teach the early signs of a chest infection.• Teach positions that help him breathe. | No infection: goal met. |