18.15 ADHD and Autism Spectrum Disorder in Children

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • Teacher says • "He cannot sit still and interrupts others." Objective • Cannot pay attention • Overactive • Acts on impulse	ACTUAL Ineffective impulse control related to neurodevelopmental disorder as evidenced by interrupting, hyperactivity and acting without thinking.	Follows a simple routine and has fewer disruptive episodes.	• Give simple instructions, one step at a time. • Keep the daily routine the same. • Praise the behaviour you want straight away. • Give medication as prescribed and watch his appetite and sleep.	Fewer episodes: goal met.
Subjective • Mother says • "She does not look at people or play with others." Objective • Hardly makes eye contact • Plays the same way over and over Upset by change	ACTUAL Impaired social interaction related to autism spectrum disorder as evidenced by poor eye contact and limited play with others.	Tolerates structured interaction with someone she knows.	• Keep her surroundings predictable. • Use visual schedules. • Refer to speech and behavioural therapy.	Tolerates interaction: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Acts on impulse • Does not see danger	RISK Risk for injury as evidenced by risk factors: impulsivity and limited awareness of danger.	No injury.	• Teach the parents about safety at home. • Watch closely near roads and water.	No injury: goal met.