18.2 Panic Disorder

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • "My heart races and I feel I am dying." Objective • Attacks come on suddenly and last 10 minutes • Overbreathing, sweating, shaking • ECG normal	ACTUAL Anxiety related to panic attacks as evidenced by palpitations, hyperventilation and fear of dying.	Within 1 week, uses breathing techniques to cut the attacks short.	• Stay with him through an attack and speak calmly, in short sentences. • Breathe slowly with him. • Cut down stimulation. • Once the attack is over, talk about what set it off. • Give medication as prescribed.	Uses the techniques: goal met.
Subjective • "I no longer go to the market alone." Objective • Stays away from crowded places • At home most days	ACTUAL Ineffective coping related to fear of attacks as evidenced by avoidance of public places.	Slowly goes back to the situations he has been avoiding.	• Support graded exposure as the therapist has planned it. • Praise every step forward.	Back to his activities: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Having attacks often • Avoiding places	RISK Risk for loneliness as evidenced by risk factors: avoidance of social situations.	Keeps in regular touch with family and friends.	• Encourage him to keep in touch with family and friends. • Bring the family in to support him. • Suggest a support group.	Keeps in touch: goal met.