4.10 Infective Endocarditis

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • "I have fever and sweats for 2 weeks." Objective • Temperature 38.6 °C • New murmur heard • Blood cultures positive	ACTUAL Hyperthermia related to infection of heart valves as evidenced by fever and positive blood cultures.	Afebrile within 72 hours of starting antibiotics.	• Take blood cultures before the antibiotics, as ordered. • Give IV antibiotics on time and for the full course. • Temperature every 4 hours. • Look after the long-term IV access.	Afebrile: goal met.
Subjective • "I get tired quickly." Objective • Tired • Anemic	ACTUAL Activity intolerance related to infection and anemia as evidenced by fatigue.	Within 1 week, manages ADL with rests and stable vital signs.	• Plan rest periods between activities. • As the fever settles, increase activity bit by bit. • Check HR and BP while he is active. • Follow the Hb.	Copes with ADL: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Vegetations on the valve • Echo shows a large vegetation	RISK Risk for ineffective cerebral tissue perfusion as evidenced by risk factors: embolization of vegetations.	No stroke or other embolic event.	• Check neurological status and the limbs, and test the urine for blood. • Report sudden neurological signs, pain in a limb, or chest pain.	No emboli: goal met.