5.10 Encephalitis

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • Family say he is confused and feverish Objective • Disoriented • Fever 38.9 °C • Behaving differently	ACTUAL Acute confusion related to brain inflammation as evidenced by disorientation and behaviour change.	Stays safe and becomes oriented as he improves.	• Check neurological status regularly. • Give the antiviral as prescribed. • Reorient him and keep the surroundings calm.	More oriented: goal met.
Subjective • Family: "He is burning hot." Objective • Temperature 38.9 °C • Skin flushed	ACTUAL Hyperthermia related to infection as evidenced by temperature 38.9 °C.	Temperature below 38 °C within 4 hours.	• Give the antipyretic as prescribed. • Keep the room cool and take off extra covers. • Temperature every 2–4 hours.	Afebrile: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Brain inflammation • Confused	RISK Risk for injury as evidenced by risk factors: seizures and confusion.	No injury.	• Seizure precautions in place. • Keep him under close observation. • Bed low, side rails as policy allows.	No injury: goal met.