5.6 Brain Tumour

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • "I have headaches every morning." Objective • Mass on CT • Family say his personality has changed	ACTUAL Acute confusion related to tumour pressure as evidenced by personality change and disorientation.	Stays safe and as oriented as possible.	• Every shift, check orientation and behaviour. • Reorient him and keep the routine the same each day. • Give steroids as prescribed to bring down the edema.	Safe and calm: goal met.
Subjective • "Will I recover?" Objective • Family tearful • Asks the same questions again and again	ACTUAL Anxiety related to diagnosis and treatment as evidenced by worry and tearfulness.	Patient and family share their feelings and understand the plan.	• Give information together with the medical team. • Leave time for questions and feelings. • Refer for psychological and social support.	Less anxious: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Brain tumour • Cerebral edema • Has had a seizure	RISK Risk for injury as evidenced by risk factors: seizures and impaired judgment.	No injury.	• Seizure precautions in place. • Give anticonvulsants as prescribed. • If his judgment is impaired, supervise him when he moves about.	No injury: goal met.