6.2 Gastritis

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • "My upper stomach hurts and I feel full quickly." Objective • Tender in the epigastrium • Takes • NSAIDs	ACTUAL Acute pain related to gastric mucosal irritation as evidenced by epigastric pain and tenderness.	Pain 3/10 or less within 24 hours.	• Give the acid-reducing medicine as prescribed. • Stop NSAIDs and alcohol as advised. • Offer small, bland meals.	Pain less: goal met.
Subjective • Vomited twice today Objective • Mouth dry • Passing less urine	ACTUAL Deficient fluid volume related to vomiting as evidenced by dry mucosa.	Within 24 hours, mouth moist and urine output adequate.	• Keep an I&O chart. • Give IV or oral fluids as ordered. • Give the antiemetic as prescribed.	Hydrated: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Endoscopy shows erosive gastritis • Takes • NSAIDs	RISK Risk for bleeding as evidenced by risk factors: gastric mucosal erosion.	Any bleeding is picked up early.	• Watch for vomiting of blood and black stools. • Follow the Hb. • Teach him to stay off NSAIDs and alcohol.	No bleeding: goal met.