8.8 Thyroid Storm

Assessment	Nursing Diagnosis	Plan / Expected Outcome	Nursing Interventions	Evaluation
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Temperature 40 °C • HR 160/min • Agitated	ACTUAL Hyperthermia related to excessive thyroid hormone as evidenced by temperature 40 °C.	Temperature below 38.5 °C within 6 hours.	• Start cooling. • Give paracetamol as ordered (not aspirin). • Give the antithyroid drug, iodine, beta-blocker and steroid as prescribed.	Temperature coming down: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • HR 160/min • Atrial fibrillation	ACTUAL Decreased cardiac output related to tachydysrhythmia as evidenced by HR 160/min and irregular rhythm.	HR under 100/min within 6 hours.	• Continuous ECG monitoring. • Give the beta-blocker as prescribed. • Watch BP and look for signs of heart failure.	Rate controlled: goal met.
Subjective • No specific complaint Objective • Agitated • Confused	RISK Risk for injury as evidenced by risk factors: agitation and delirium.	No injury.	• Keep the room calm and cool. • Keep her under close observation. • Bed low, side rails as policy allows.	No injury: goal met.